

Summer Transition Work

Sociology

Hoe Valley Sixth Form

Dear student,

Over the summer we want you to complete the following tasks below to help you make a successful transition from GCSE to Sixth Form study. Our summer transition work includes the following 3 elements to help you feel like a pro when your sixth form journey begins!

Preparation

Below are some tasks that will help to introduce you to knowledge required for the start of the course or to consolidate key GCSE level material.

Watch Episode 3 of "100 Humans" on Netflix
Watch the following TV Programmers every week: News-night (BBC2) and BBC Question time (BBC1)

Reading

Below is some essential reading material or some titles that will help you to read around your subject and develop a deeper understanding of the subject, a crucial skill for success in the Sixth Form.

1. Research the case of Jamie Bulger via Internet articles and YouTube
2. Create a mind map detailing the horrific event and the events following the incident
3. Write a letter to Jaime detailing how you would change the world in order for such things to never happen again
4. Read a contrasting range of newspapers- The Times, Daily Telegraph, Guardian, The Sun, Daily Mail.

Organisation

Below are tasks to help you to be organised with your work when you start in September. You will be completing a huge amount of work and to be successful you must keep on top of everything!

This is a fantastic time to be studying Sociology. As we come to the end of Coronavirus and the emergence of conflict in Europe, leaders are having to take huge steps to ensure safety economic progression – Sociology is at the forefront of this in terms of discussing the analytical happenings worldwide.

Make sure you follow the news and come to lesson in September ready to discuss the burning issue of the day
